This is to certify that

Almudena Lopez Fernandez

Has successfully completed SIXTY HOURS (60) in the ten-day Erasmus+ CPD course:

CLIL in Dublin: Content and Language Integrated Learning

Organised by English Matters in TRINITY COLLEGE DUBLIN,
Dublin, Ireland, from 24/07/2017 to 04/08/2017

Professional Development: The participant has explored the potential of a CLIL approach through practical ideas for lesson planning and delivery, materials development, and assessment in CLIL. Based on this framework, the participant has engaged in field projects by following the English Matters' Contexts4Content methodology to explore Irish culture and society as reference contexts for producing teaching resources, while developing communicative competence in English. The participant has also engaged in lectures, workshops and group discussions; has reflected on how to introduce Information and Communication Technology (ICT) into teaching; accomplished reflective professional journal writing; and participated in networking activities on Dissemination Strategies and the European Dimension in Education. Evaluation of participation: EXCELLENT.

This Continuous Professional Development (CPD) Course has been organised in the framework of the European ERASMUS+ Programme. Action KA1.
